

Welcome to Switzerland for the F4 Scale World Championships

The 2018 F4 Scale World Championship is being hosted at the most advanced and modern airbase of the Swiss Air Force. Facilities include modern halls and massive hangars, perfect meeting rooms and a large area for spectators, guests and the participants. There is also a food and beverage service on the airfield with multiple choice of meals.

The short distances from the hangars to the preparation area and the contest site are ultra convenient for the aeromodellers and judges at the World Championship.

Schedule:

- July 4-6 Arrival /check in, training flights, first static judging
- July 7 Opening ceremony with airshow
- July 8 to 14 Contest
- July 14 Closing ceremony and banquet

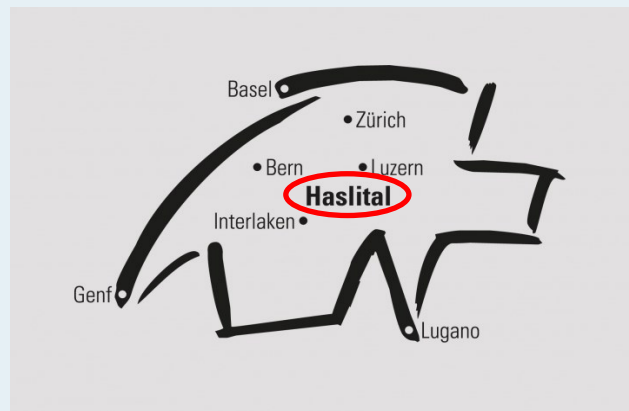

The contest site, a perfect location for airports and world champions

The Meiringen AFB is a highly regarded contest site. The 2013 Jet World Masters was held on the base. Thousands of spectators visited the contest: they were impressed by the vast area, fine location and the specified rooms for static and flight judges, competitors as well as visitors. For a retrospect take a look at www.jwm2013.com.

The taxiway is our runway; the two preparation shelters beside it are available for final checks. The flight judges will be positioned in front of a huge fence, protected by a tent from the sun and adverse weather conditions.

You and your family, your colleagues, and helpers will have an unforgettable stay in Switzerland, close to the many attractions of this outstanding area. See Haslital Website.
